Our Journey Through Lent

Reading Through the Gospel of Mark

March 2 - April 17, 2022

Colour and Journal

We experience so many emotions this week as we read these stories. Write down or colour some of your thoughts each day.

Look back at all of the stories of our Lenten journey. What stories surprised you most? What stories challenged you the most? What stories marked you as Jesus' own? How will you live differently because of your Lenten journey?

Monday, April 11 to Easter Sunday, April 17

Jesus eats a very special meal with his disciples before going to pray. Things quickly shift and Jesus is arrested. He is soon sentenced by the political and religious leaders to die. Jesus is crucified by the authorities and after he dies he is put into a tomb by those who love him. Why do you think the people wanted him to go away? How do these stories make you feel?

Three days later everything changes. Jesus comes back to life. Jesus returns to his friends.

Dear Jesus, this week is so difficult. These are stories we don't want to read. Be close to us as we read these stories. We know the ending is amazing, but we're not there quite yet. Help us to understand each story through this week and help us to be ready for Easter day. Amen.

The Season of Lent

Lent is one of the most special seasons of the church year. It follows the seasons of Advent, Christmas and Epiphany during which we anticipated and prepared for the birth of Jesus and welcomed him as God come to earth to be with us. In the season of Lent we travel with Jesus as he teaches and reveals to us who God is and how much God loves us. As our journey progresses we will travel with Jesus through the final days of his life on earth, his final teachings to his followers, his arrest, trial and crucifixion. Our Lenten journey will conclude in dark times. Then we will wait; we will wait for what happens next.

The word Lent comes from the Anglo-Saxon word 'lencten' which means 'spring' and refers to the lengthening of the days as winter comes to an end and spring is upon us.

Lent lasts 40 days, not counting the Sundays, which are always considered 'little Easters' each week. The number 40 reminds us of the time that Jesus spent in the wilderness after his baptism and before his ministry began. In the wilderness Jesus experienced a harsh time of trial and preparation.

In the early church Lent was aside for the preparation of new converts for baptism at Easter. It was to be a time of self-examination, penitence, humility and fasting.

Over time the harsh demands of Lent have softened and people today look upon Lent as a time for growing, learning and reflecting on the meaning and experience of Jesus' ministry and his death on the cross. During Lent many people focus their time on prayer and meditation while others are concerned with sharing God's love by helping others. Some people 'give up' something for Lent while others 'add something more' to remember this season and the love of God expressed in the ministry of Jesus.

This booklet is one of the many ways you and your family can journey through Lent and prepare together for Easter.

Let's begin our Lenten journey.

How To Use This Booklet

In this booklet you will find bible readings, prayers and journal activities for individuals and families of all ages to use as you journey through Lent. You will have the choice of reading from the bible or using a children's bible story book if your family includes younger children. Either way we will all be reading through the Gospel of Mark and hear the story of Jesus' ministry from its beginning to Jesus' resurrection.

Set aside some time each day to read. You might choose a time early in the morning, over a family meal, or before bed. Try to make a consistent time that allows you the best opportunity to reflect and pray without feeling rushed. Begin your devotions with the prayer written for that week and then read the daily scripture or story for that day. Take time to reflect on what you have read. There are no 'right' answers. Use the theme prompts to help you dig deeper into the story and discover new learnings. Add questions of your own too. Complete your time by giving thanks to God for the opportunity to learn, grow and discover the good news of Jesus and how this good news transforms us.

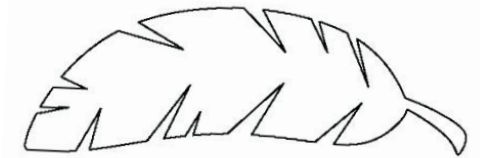

Each week there are either 6 scripture readings, or 3 (or so) bible stories to be read. Use a version of the scripture that you are comfortable reading. For families with younger children we recommend using either the Spark Story Bible published by Sparkhouse, or Growing in God's Love: A Story Bible edited by Elizabeth F. Caldwell and Carol H. Wehrheim.

Each week you can visit HERE to hear one of the key bible stories read aloud.

Colour and Journal

Write a song of praise this week. Find something to wave while you sing your song.

Monday, April 4 to Palm Sunday, April 10

This week our journey takes us to Jerusalem. We begin with the wonderful story of Jesus being welcomed by everyone as he enters the city. People spread their cloaks on the road and wave palms branches to celebrate Jesus' entry.

Once he enters the city Jesus begins to tell his followers that these are the dark days he was telling them about. This is where he will be challenged by the people in authority who want him arrested. The scribes and chief priests keep trying to catch him in an argument about who he is and what he is doing. Through stories and clear speaking Jesus tells them how they are so very wrong. He tells his followers to keep watch and be ready.

God bless the one who comes riding on a donkey. Hosanna!
Hallelujah! God bless the name of the Lord! Help us Lord to keep shouting out our Hosannas through the dark days ahead.
Amen.

Planting a Lenten Garden

As a growing visual symbol of Lent and Easter you may wish to make a mini Lent garden for your home. To make this garden you will need the following:

- a mini terra cotta pot (approx. 2" wide)
- a shallow and wide saucer/pot (approx. 6" deep & at least 10" wide)
- well-drained potting soil mix
- paper white bulbs (or multi-coloured lettuce, or herb seeds)
- a large river rock (a bit wider than the mouth of the mini pot), and smaller flat rocks if you wish
- a 6" cross you have made by gluing or wrapping string around two tree twigs to place in your garden on Good Friday
- small silk butterflies to decorate your garden with on Easter Sunday

1. Place the mini pot on its side in the center of the wider saucer/pot. Place the large river rock over the mouth of the mini pot. This will be the tomb in the garden.
2. Fill the larger pot with potting mix to 1/3 the depth of the pot. Plant the paper white bulbs in the soil with their tips up. Pack them tightly beside each other, but leave a pathway to the mouth of the smaller pot. You may wish to mark this path with smaller river rocks if you'd like.
3. Cover the bulbs with more soil so the bulb tips are just barely peeking above the soil. Water until the soil is about as moist as a wrung out sponge.
4. Place your garden in a well lit place. You can move the garden to your coffee or dining table once it blooms, but right now it needs strong, bright sunlight to begin to grow.
5. Keep your garden watered so that it is always slightly moist. Your garden should bloom in 30-45 days in time for Easter.
6. Place your twig cross in your garden on Good Friday.
7. On Easter morning remove the large river rock from the mouth of the small pot and place your butterflies throughout your garden.

Wednesday, March 2 to Sunday, March 6

Lent begins on Ash Wednesday. Some people go to church on Ash Wednesday. At Ash Wednesday services the minister makes a sign of a cross on each person's forehead with ashes. This is to help them remember that they belong to God.

Baptism reminds us that we belong to God. This week we hear that John baptized many people who wanted to repent of their sins and also be marked as belonging to God. John baptized many people, but he never expected to baptize Jesus. When Jesus came and asked John to be baptized John didn't want to do it. But Jesus insisted. This occasion marks the beginning of Jesus' public ministry.

Let's begin our journey each day with a prayer.

Dear God, We are so thankful that you love us. Remind us as we read our story today that this is not just any story; this is our story. Remind us that the bible holds stories of our belonging to you. We thank you that Jesus came to live in the world with us so we could know you better and better. Help us always to remember that we belong to you. Amen.

In our stories we hear that walking with Jesus can be difficult, and sometimes we get things wrong. This doesn't mean we stop our journey. It just means we keep walking close to Jesus so we learn and grow in our faith. Jesus tells the disciples that they need to let the children and everyone get close to him. Draw a picture or write about being with Jesus even when we mess up.

Monday, March 28 to Sunday, April 3

Things are getting confusing and people are getting confused. The disciples love and follow Jesus, but sometimes they mess up. They begin to argue amongst themselves who Jesus' favourite disciple is and they stop children from seeing Jesus because they think children aren't important enough for Jesus to see. Jesus challenges them to think differently.

Others are trying to understand as well. A rich man is wants to know what more he can do to get into the kingdom of heaven and Jesus challenges him to think and act more as Jesus does.

Jesus tells his followers that things aren't going to be easy going forward. Jesus lets them know that he is going to be arrested and be killed. But this won't be the end of the story. No, the story will have a great ending, and Jesus will live again.

Tell Jesus how you mess up, and then ask Jesus to forgive you and keep teaching you how to follow him. Amen.

Hear and tell stories this week about your baptism. When were you baptized? Who baptized you? Who was there? What happened when you were baptized? What does belonging to God mean to you? How do others know that you belong to God?

Monday, March 7 to Sunday, March 13

As we travel through our readings this week Jesus gathers people together to follow him and become his disciples. As Jesus begins his journey twelve special disciples travel alongside him watching and hearing all that he has to share about God's love for all people. As Jesus' reputation grows throughout the land many more people travel long distances to have Jesus heal them.

Throughout the Gospel of Mark Jesus stops to care for people, to get to know them and to invite them to follow him. Relationships matter to Jesus. Some people choose to follow, while others accuse Jesus of breaking the rules. Early in our Lenten journey there is a glimmer of tension growing between Jesus and the religious leaders of the day.

Dear Jesus, we are thankful that you call us to you, offering us teaching and healing. Open our eyes to seek you each day and to answer your call to follow you. Help us to see your love every day and to learn from you. Amen

Jesus sent out his disciples to also tell stories, heal the sick, and feed the hungry. When they came back from their journeys they immediately told Jesus what they done and what they had said. Who might you help this week? What do you need to do to be helpful? How can you plan to be prepared to help others? What will you tell people if they ask why you are helping them?

Monday, March 21 to Sunday, March 27

As we continue our journey we witness amazing miracles. Jesus feeds huge crowds of followers simply because they are hungry. He heals and rescues people. He even walks over stormy waters to comfort his disciples caught in their boat as they are tossed about on the sea.

Over and over again we hear the question being asked, “Who is Jesus?” Eventually Jesus asks Peter to answer that very question for himself. How does Peter answer Jesus’ question?

Who do you think Jesus is?

Lord Jesus, you have showed yourself to be a friend who cares for everyone, wanting each to be made whole. Calm our hearts just as you calmed the storms for the disciples that we may not be afraid. Help us to know who you are and through you to know God. Amen.

So many people follow Jesus and every person seems to want something; to be healed, to be fed, to be taught, to be loved. Jesus makes time for everyone. What do you want from Jesus? Where would you stand in the crowd; pushing your way to the front or hanging back hoping to be seen by Jesus? When have you brought others to see Jesus?

Monday, March 14 to Sunday, March 20

Jesus helps people know God by telling them special stories to describe how God loves and cares for them. These special stories are called parables. Often Jesus starts a parable with the words, “The kingdom of God is like...” When you read or hear a parable you may wonder what is Jesus telling us about the kingdom of God. As you read each of the stories this week build a picture for yourself of what the kingdom of God is like. Think of words you would use to describe God.

The stories of healing which follow our parables this week also help to build our understanding of what the kingdom of God is like. What is God’s kingdom beginning to look like to you?

Thank you Jesus for seeds and fields, lamps and lamp stands. As we read today’s story, help us to grow in our love for you. Help us to know you better and tell stories of your kingdom to others. Amen.

As we continue to travel through Lent remember that Jesus is not just teaching us about a kingdom that is yet to be, he is also describing God’s kingdom here on earth. What stories might you tell so that other people would know what God is like? What good seeds will you plant this week? How will you tend and water seeds of God’s love for others? What would you point to to share how God is doing great things in this world?
